What is broken in relationship has to be healed in relationships

One 2023 Camper's "Dear God" Letter

*"Dear God,
Sometimes I feel like you're not there, deep down I know you are, but I feel you aren't. You weren't there when I needed you, remember, in Nevada, where were you then? I tried so hard to reach for you, but you weren't there, I know you give your toughest challenges to your toughest soldiers, but I couldn't handle it. I tried to harm myself and you didn't stop me, you didn't communicate, nothing.
But thru all of that I still had faith, faith you were there, and I don't know why, I had no proof, but you were my only hope, so I tried to turn to you and eventually it worked but it took awhile. It wasn't until I was put into foster care for the second time that I really saw changes. I know you have a path for me, a plan and I thank you for being here for me now."*

Royal Family KIDS Camp fosters resiliency, self-esteem, hope and positive memories. The camp curriculum and activities are woven through the modality of Trust-Based Relational Intervention to ensure our children are experiencing truly life giving activities throughout the 5-day experience.

It's our desire for every child to experience unconditional love, hope and safety by facilitating a camp experience that cultivates relationship, trust, spiritual growth, and of course, tons of fun.

In order to help a child recover from abuse and neglect, intervention must go both deep and wide.

Five days of immersion at camp goes deep and breaks barriers — our mentoring programs go wide.

The Royal Family KIDS mentoring program includes skills mastery, character building, and fun — plus individualized attention from trained adults who are effective role models.
